

SPELL IT OUT

THE National HDFC Standard Life Spell Bee 2010 recently concluded and four winners from Mumbai, Chennai, Lucknow, and Pune have emerged as the 'National' winner. The winners got through after participants from 1,200 schools and 2,16,000 contestants participated in the competition across cities all over India. The anchor for the finals was popular VJ Mini Mathur Khan. The winner Anand Sundaram was presented a cash prize of Rs.1,00,000 from HDFC Standard Life Insurance and all expenses paid trip to Washington DC to participate in the Scripps International Spelling Bee Contest. Catch this exciting contest on Mar 11 at 9 am and repeat at Mar 13 at 4 pm on National Geographic.