HDFC Life simplifies claim submission process for families of Balasore train accident victims

Mumbai, June 8, 2023: HDFC Life, one of India's largest life insurers, has announced an easy process for claim submission for family members/nominees of the Company's policyholders who lost their lives in the Balasore train tragedy.

For claim submission, the nominee needs to provide only the following documents:

- Proof of death issued by Local Government, Police or Hospital
- Nominee's Identity Proof along with address and Bank details

For prompt support, HDFC Life can be contacted via:

Call centre number: 1860-267-9999, email at service@hdfclife.com or by a visit to any of its branch offices.

Vineet Arora, Chief Operating Officer, HDFC Life said "We at HDFC Life express our heartfelt condolences for the lives lost and sincere wishes for the speedy recovery of those injured. While nothing can replace the loss of an invaluable life, we want to provide a helping hand with the best possible claim support service to the families."
