What is the benefit?

There are three benefit options available under the rider:

- Option A: Personal Accident Cover
- Option B: Accidental Death Cover
- Option C: Cancer Cover

Subject to the conditions stated below, this rider can be opted for by any or all of the lives covered under the base policy.

Conditions:

- i. A Life Assured can choose any or all of the above plan options. However, option A and option B cannot be selected together.
- ii. A Life Assured can opt for this rider at inception of the policy or at any base policy premium due date.
- iii. Rider coverage terminates as soon as the base policy terminates.

• Option A: Personal Accident Cover

In case the Life Assured has opted for this Benefit Option, the Benefit shall be paid out on the following events:

- i. Accidental Death,
- ii. Accidental Total Permanent Disability(ATPD) and/or
- iii. Accidental Partial Permanent Disability(APPD)

i. Accidental Death

In an unforeseen event of death of the Life Assured due to accident during the rider term, 100% of the rider sum assured will be paid to the nominee.

Accidental death means death by or due to a bodily injury caused by an accident, independent of all other causes of death.

An accident means sudden, unforeseen and involuntary event caused by external, visible and violent means.

Accidental Death must be caused within 180 days of any bodily injury. If the bodily injury occurred within the coverage period and the Accidental Death happens after the end of coverage period but within 180 days of bodily injury, a valid claim arising as a result of such Accidental Death shall not be denied.

Once the benefit amount is claimed, the coverage under Option A shall terminate.

In lieu of lump sum benefit amount for Accidental Death, the nominee may choose to receive the benefit as:

- Regular monthly Income payable for 10 years, or
- Part of benefit amount as lump sum immediately on Accidental Death and the balance benefit amount as regular monthly income for 10 years.

The choice of benefit pay-out as lump sum or income or combination thereof can be exercised on the date the claim is made.

The interest rate used to compute the installment amount shall be equal to the annualized yield on 10 year G-Sec (over last 6 months & rounded down to nearest 25bps) less 100 basis points. The interest rate shall be reviewed half-yearly and any change in the interest rate shall be effective from 25th February and 25th August each year. The interest rate shall be revised every time there is a change as per the above formula. In case of a revision in interest rate, the same shall apply until next revision. The source of 10-year benchmark G-sec yield shall be RBI Negotiated Dealing System-Order Matching segment (NDS-OM).

At any time during the installment phase, the nominee can choose to terminate the installment payment in exchange for a lump-sum, in which case, the lump-sum payable shall be equal to the discounted value of all the future installments due. The interest rate used to calculate the discounted value shall be equal to the annualized yield on 10 year G-Sec (over last 6 months & rounded down to nearest 25bps) + 100 basis points on the date of termination.

ii. Accidental Total Permanent Disability (ATPD)

In the event of Total Permanent Disability of the Life Assured, due to an accident during the coverage term, a regular monthly income equal to 1% of the Rider Sum Assured shall be payable for a fixed period of 10 years.

What is Total Permanent Disability?

- Total Permanent Disability means when the Life Assured is totally, continuously and permanently disabled as a result of accident i.e. Accidental Total Permanent Disability (ATPD) and meets either of the two or both the conditions mentioned below:

- 1: Unable to work:

Disability as a result of Injury or Accident and is thereby rendered totally incapable of being engaged in any work or any occupation or employment for any compensation, remuneration or profit and he/she is unlikely to ever be able to do so.

- 2: Physical Impairments:

The Life Assured suffers an injury/Accident due to which there is total and irrecoverable loss of:

- The use of two limbs; or
 - The sight of both eyes; or
 - The use of one limb and the sight of one eye; or
 - Loss by severance of two or more limbs at or above wrists or ankles; or
 - Sight of one eye and loss by severance of one limb at or above wrist or ankle.
- The disabilities as stated above in (1) and (2) must have lasted, without interruption, for at least 6 consecutive months and must, in the opinion of a Medical practitioner, be deemed permanent.
 - The benefit shall commence upon the completion of this uninterrupted period of 6 months. However, for the disabilities mentioned in (d) and (e) under (2), such 6 months period would not be applicable and the benefit shall commence immediately.
 - Injury means accidental physical bodily harm excluding illness and disease. It must be solely and directly caused by external, violent, visible and evident means which is verified and certified by a Medical Practitioner.
 - Once the maximum benefit is claimed, the coverage under Option A shall terminate.

iii. Accidental Partial Permanent Disability (APPD)

On Life Assured sustaining any bodily injury during the coverage period resulting solely and directly from an Accident:

- 50% of the Rider Sum Assured shall be payable, if such injury shall, within 12 months of its occurrence be the sole and direct cause of the total and irrecoverable loss by physical separation of one entire hand or of one entire foot.

b) If such injury shall, within 12 months of its occurrence be the sole and direct cause of the total and / or partial and irrecoverable loss of use or of the actual loss by physical separation of the following, then the percentage of the Rider Sum Assured as indicated below shall be payable.

Sr. No.	Disability	Benefit %
(i)	Permanent total loss of hearing in both ears	75
(ii)	Permanent total loss of use of one limb other than by physical separation or Permanent total loss of sight of one eye	50
(iii)	Permanent total loss of use of four fingers and thumb of either hand	40
(iv)	Permanent total loss of hearing in one ear or Permanent total loss of the lens in one eye	25
(v)	Permanent total loss of use of four fingers of either hand or Permanent total loss of use of one thumb of either hand or Ankyloses of the elbow, hip or knee	20
(vi)	Permanent total loss of use of all toes	15
(vii)	Permanent total loss of one finger of either hand or Established non-union of fractured leg or kneecap	10

Other Conditions:

- Benefit payable towards any claim shall not exceed the Unclaimed Benefit Rider Sum Assured.
- Once the maximum benefit is claimed, the coverage under Option A shall terminate.
- The disabilities as stated above must have lasted, without interruption, for at least 6 consecutive months and must, in the opinion of a Medical practitioner, be deemed permanent. However, for the disability mentioned in (a) above, such 6 months period would not be applicable.
- In lieu of lump sum benefit amount for APPD, the Life Assured may receive benefit as:
 - Regular monthly Income payable for 10 years, or
 - Part of benefit amount as lump sum immediately on Accidental Death and the balance benefit amount as regular monthly income for 10 years.
- The choice of benefit pay-out as lump sum or income or combination thereof can be exercised on the date the claim is made.
- The interest rate used to compute the installment amount shall be equal to the annualized yield on 10 year G-Sec (over last 6 months & rounded down to nearest 25bps) less 100 basis points.
- At any time during the installment phase, the nominee can choose to terminate the installment payment in exchange for a lump sum, in which case, the lump-sum payable shall be equal to the discounted value of all the future installments due. The interest rate used to calculate the discounted value shall be equal to the annualized yield on 10 year G-Sec (over last 6 months & rounded down to nearest 25bps) + 100 basis points on the date of termination.
- The interest rate shall be reviewed half-yearly and any change in the interest rate shall be effective from 25th February and 25th August each year. The interest rate shall be revised every time there is a change as per the above formula. In case of a revision in interest rate, the same shall apply until next revision. The source of 10-year benchmark G-sec yield shall be RBI Negotiated Dealing System-Order Matching segment (NDS-OM).
- Additional conditions applicable for Option A:
 - a. If ATPD occurs after APPD, then 1% of the remaining amount (100% of PAC Rider Sum

- Assured less APPD claims paid) shall be paid as a regular monthly income for 10 years.
- b. If Accidental Death happens after APPD, then the remaining amount (100% of PAC Rider Sum Assured less APPD claims paid) shall be paid as lump sum or income or a combination thereof as mentioned in the benefits section above.
 - c. No additional benefit shall be payable for Accidental Death and APPD following ATPD claim
 - d. In case of death following ATPD claim, the remaining instalment payments shall be paid to the nominee. On death of the life assured, or at any subsequent time during the installment phase, the nominee can choose to terminate the installment payment in exchange for a lumpsum, in which case, the lumpsum payable shall be equal to the discounted value of all the future installments due.

• Option B: Accidental Death Cover

In an unforeseen event of death of the Life Assured due to accident during the rider term, 100% of the rider sum assured will be paid to the nominee.

Accidental death means death by or due to a bodily injury caused by an accident, independent of all other causes of death.

An accident means sudden, unforeseen and involuntary event caused by external, visible and violent means.

Accidental Death must be caused within 180 days of any bodily injury.

If the bodily injury occurred within the coverage period and the Accidental Death happens after the end of coverage period but within 180 days of bodily injury, a valid claim arising as a result of such Accidental Death shall not be denied.

Once the benefit amount is claimed, the coverage under Option B shall terminate.

In lieu of lump sum benefit amount for Accidental Death, the nominee may choose to receive the benefit as:

- Regular monthly Income payable for 10 years, or
- Part of benefit amount as lump sum immediately on Accidental Death and the balance benefit amount as regular monthly income for 10 years.

The choice of benefit pay-out as lump sum or income or combination thereof can be exercised on the date the claim is made.

The interest rate used to compute the instalment amount shall be equal to the annualized yield on 10 year G-Sec (over last 6 months & rounded down to nearest 25bps) less 100 basis points.

At any time during the instalment phase, the nominee can choose to terminate the instalment payment in exchange for a lump-sum, in which case, the lump-sum payable shall be equal to the discounted value of all the future instalments due. The interest rate used to calculate the discounted value shall be equal to the annualized yield on 10 year G-Sec (over last 6 months & rounded down to nearest 25bps) + 100 basis points on the date of termination.

The interest rate shall be reviewed half-yearly and any change in the interest rate shall be effective from 25th February and 25th August each year. The interest rate shall be revised every time there is a change as per the above formula. In case of a revision in interest rate, the same shall apply until next revision. The source of 10-year benchmark G-sec yield shall be RBI Negotiated Dealing System-Order Matching segment (NDS-OM).

Terms & Conditions

(i) Free-look Period:

Individual

a) Cancellation in the free look period

- The policyholder shall have the option of cancelling the rider, stating the reasons thereof, by returning the Rider Document to company, within 30 days from the date of receipt of the rider in case policyholder is not agreeable to any rider terms and conditions. • The rider can be cancelled in the free-look period even if the base policy to which it is attached is continued.
- The rider shall be automatically cancelled if the base policy to which it is attached is cancelled.
- If rider is cancelled along with the base policy, on receipt of letter along with original policy documents, the company shall arrange to refund the rider premiums paid by policyholder, subject to deduction of the proportionate risk premium for the period on cover and the expenses incurred for medical examination (if any) and stamp duty, (if any). This would be in addition to the refund under the base policy as per applicable terms and conditions.
- If rider is cancelled independently of the base policy then the rider premium will be returned, subject to deduction of the proportionate risk premium for the period on cover and the expenses incurred for medical examination (if any) and stamp duty, (if any).
- A rider once cancelled shall not be revived, reinstated or restored at any point of time and a new proposal will have to be made for a new rider.

b) Cancellation after the free look period

- The rider can be cancelled at any time during its rider term. Upon such a cancellation, the rider will lapse and the surrender value (if any) will be payable.
- The rider shall be automatically cancelled if the base policy to which it is attached is cancelled.

(ii) Nomination: Nomination for this Rider Policy shall be as per the Nomination Schedule under the Main Policy as per section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time. The simplified version of the provisions of section 39 is enclosed in Rider Policy Document for your reference.

(iii) Alterations: Rider term and rider sum assured cannot be altered. The premium payment frequency of the rider can be changed if the premium payment frequency on the base product is changed. The premium payment frequency of the rider cannot be changed independently from the Base Policy.

Addition/Removal of Benefit Option

- i. If not opted at inception of the base policy, the life assured may opt for the rider at any base policy premium due date.
- ii. At any base policy premium due date, the life assured can remove their existing rider option and/ or add the other option. For example, if the life assured has opted for Option A at inception, he/she may remove Option A and choose Option B at any base policy premium due date.
- iii. In case the life assured wants to opt for an additional option, he may do so at any premium due date and the additional premium for the new option shall be calculated based on the outstanding term on the date of adding the new rider.

Switching of Options:

In case the life assured wants to switch from one rider option to another, he may do so at any premium due date and the premium shall be calculated as below:

- i. Regular Pay policies – The life assured shall pay revised premium corresponding to the option now chosen for the outstanding premium payment term. The cover under the old rider option expires on the day he switches to the new option.
- ii. Limited Pay/Single Pay policies – For Limited Pay/Single Pay policies, the revised premium shall be calculated based on the outstanding term on the date of adding the new rider. In addition, in respect of the premiums already paid, there will be a refund of premiums equal to the Total premiums paid until the date of switch less the premiums payable under Regular Pay for the covered duration.
- iii. In case the life assured switches to Option C, a waiting period of 180 days from the date of switching will apply.

(iv) Assignment and Transfer: This Rider cannot be assigned independently. However the Rider Policy can be assigned along with the Base Policy as per Section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time. The simplified version of the provisions of section 38 is enclosed in Rider Policy Document for your reference.

(v) Prohibition of Rebates: In accordance with Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time:

No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer.

Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be liable for a penalty which may extend to ten lakh rupees.

(vi) Non-Disclosure: In accordance with Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time:

- i. No policy of life insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after the expiry of three years from the date of the policy, i.e., from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later.
- ii. A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground of fraud: Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision is based.

- iii. Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), no insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer: Provided that in case of fraud, the onus of disproving lies upon the beneficiaries, in case the policyholder is not alive.
- iv. A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to the expectancy of the life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document on the basis of which the policy was issued or revived or rider issued: Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based: Provided further that in case of repudiation of the policy on the ground of misstatement or suppression of a material fact, and not on the ground of fraud, the premiums collected on the policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured within a period of ninety days from the date of such repudiation.
- v. Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.
